Details

Hunza Valley has a diverse religious history with it being home to several historic religious sites like the ancient watchtowers in Ganish village, Baltit Fort on top of Karimabad which was built by the Mirs about 800 years ago, which is a historic landmark for Hunza and Altit Fort (at the bottom of the valley). Hunza Valley is a remote region of Pakistan that has long been known for its natural beauty and fascinating culture. The valley is located in the Gilgit-Baltistan region, which borders Afghanistan and China. It is home to the Hunza people, who are known for their longevity and vibrant culture.
